

LOCAL NEWS.

We Advertisers.

Nearly 15 thousand copies of the Argus are circulated among the floating population every day, besides the large number served to regular subscribers. Advertisers will take note accordingly.

— Notices of Marriages, Births, and Deaths.

Occurring in Washington and Georgetown, will be printed in this paper without charge.

Amusements.

Ford's ATHENAEUM.—The interest in the wondrous theatrical presentations has been renewed tragedian Ford continuing his success. Last night a large and interested audience filled the Athenaeum to witness the great tragedy of "Machiavelli." Hurly can a man be found who has such complete success in the presentation of the immortal Shakespeare's great characters?

Mr. Ford is unrelenting in his efforts to give the Washington literary public one of the best pieces of entertainment in the country. To-night, Friday evening, he will present a picture by profession, and came from Sheffield, Yorkshire, England. Any information about him will reach an anxious wife, if directed to Mrs. Elizabeth Murphy, 317 G street.

Cleaning Them Out.

Eugene Valentine, George Anderson, L. Marcelli, James Gourley, H. H. Barber, Louis Picard and Wm. H. Griffin, exhibitors of fat women ring-tailed monkeys, etc., gamblers, and organ-grinders, were arrested by the police and taken to the police station. They are to appear in court to-morrow morning.

Their trial will be held at the same time as the other trials.

Mr. Ford is unrelenting in his efforts to give the Washington literary public one of the best pieces of entertainment in the country. Tonight, Friday evening, he will present a picture by profession, and came from Sheffield, Yorkshire, England. Any information about him will reach an anxious wife, if directed to Mrs. Elizabeth Murphy, 317 G street.

Arraigned on Suspicion of Robbery.

The notorious Washington pickpocket and confidence man, "the Prince of Washington," was arraigned on suspicion of robbery. He was committed to jail by Justice Walter for a further hearing. This is the first time for several months that the police have cleared out all of the swindlers.

To-night Miss Bateman makes her last appearance in the singular character of "Dolly," in Mr. H. L. Bateman's appearing, for the only time in this city, in the great comic character of John Unit. As this will certainly be the last appearance of the Bateman, those who desire to see the sterling comedy of "Dolly" will appear in a tragedy, probably popular, though but little played.

The box office for recurring seats is now open, and the curtain will be the last but one of the Canterbury Minstrels; the great comic chorus, the "Star-Span'gled Banner," and the "Glorious Marches of Spain."

Dick Parker, the great dancer of negro character, is certainly deserving the great favor with which he is highly received, and altogether, we must admit the entire company to be the most popular that we ever saw in Washington.

One lady friend will, by no means, forget the splendid gift matines that is to be given for their especial benefit this afternoon. Those who will have good seats must go early.

ANTHEM WASH.—The whole city is on the tip-toe of impatience in anticipation of the anticipated appearance of the variable "The Children in the Woods," and all are anxious to know what he is going to make of it.

On Friday night, Jerry O'Neil, while engaged in leading a dray at the Depot, yesterday afternoon, had one of his legs broken by a barrel rolling against it.

Fest.

Those requiring the services of a skillful chiropodist should not fail to call on Dr. White, at 426 Pennsylvania Avenue. The Doctor has received a very liberal patronage in the past, and the new addition to his practice is owing to his successful manner of operation and the following moderate prices: Corns per cent, 50 cents; Bunions, from $1 to $3. The Doctor hurts the pocket but a trifle, and the toes not a particle. Give him a call.

The Indian Herb Doctor.

The Indian Herb Doctor will describe the nature of their complaints or illness, without receiving any information from them.

Mr. Hamlin, the President of the Association, calls the meeting to order, and a statement in relation to the workings of the society, and said that $125 had been collected, of which some had been expended in buying two or three hundred yards of cloth, which was being made up for the fugitives now in the city. He spoke of the great want of information as to the whereabouts of the fugitives, and the following moderate prices: Corns per cent, 50 cents; Bunions, from $1 to $3. The Doctor hurts the pocket but a trifle, and the toes not a particle. Give him a call.

U.S. Anti-Slavery Association.

A meeting of the Anti-Slavery Association is to extend relief to the contrabands who have fled from slavery, furnishing them with clothing and temporary employment, and also to teach them to read and write.

Mr. Hamlin, the President of the Association, calls the meeting to order, and a statement in relation to the workings of the society, and said that $125 had been collected, of which some had been expended in buying two or three hundred yards of cloth, which was being made up for the fugitives now in the city. He spoke of the great want of information as to the whereabouts of the fugitives, and the following moderate prices: Corns per cent, 50 cents; Bunions, from $1 to $3. The Doctor hurts the pocket but a trifle, and the toes not a particle. Give him a call.

U.S. Anti-Slavery Association.

A meeting of the Anti-Slavery Association is to extend relief to the contrabands who have fled from slavery, furnishing them with clothing and temporary employment, and also to teach them to read and write.

Mr. Hamlin, the President of the Association, calls the meeting to order, and a statement in relation to the workings of the society, and said that $125 had been collected, of which some had been expended in buying two or three hundred yards of cloth, which was being made up for the fugitives now in the city. He spoke of the great want of information as to the whereabouts of the fugitives, and the following moderate prices: Corns per cent, 50 cents; Bunions, from $1 to $3. The Doctor hurts the pocket but a trifle, and the toes not a particle. Give him a call.

U.S. Anti-Slavery Association.

A meeting of the Anti-Slavery Association is to extend relief to the contrabands who have fled from slavery, furnishing them with clothing and temporary employment, and also to teach them to read and write.

Mr. Hamlin, the President of the Association, calls the meeting to order, and a statement in relation to the workings of the society, and said that $125 had been collected, of which some had been expended in buying two or three hundred yards of cloth, which was being made up for the fugitives now in the city. He spoke of the great want of information as to the whereabouts of the fugitives, and the following moderate prices: Corns per cent, 50 cents; Bunions, from $1 to $3. The Doctor hurts the pocket but a trifle, and the toes not a particle. Give him a call.

U.S. Anti-Slavery Association.

A meeting of the Anti-Slavery Association is to extend relief to the contrabands who have fled from slavery, furnishing them with clothing and temporary employment, and also to teach them to read and write.

Mr. Hamlin, the President of the Association, calls the meeting to order, and a statement in relation to the workings of the society, and said that $125 had been collected, of which some had been expended in buying two or three hundred yards of cloth, which was being made up for the fugitives now in the city. He spoke of the great want of information as to the whereabouts of the fugitives, and the following moderate prices: Corns per cent, 50 cents; Bunions, from $1 to $3. The Doctor hurts the pocket but a trifle, and the toes not a particle. Give him a call.

U.S. Anti-Slavery Association.

A meeting of the Anti-Slavery Association is to extend relief to the contrabands who have fled from slavery, furnishing them with clothing and temporary employment, and also to teach them to read and write.

Mr. Hamlin, the President of the Association, calls the meeting to order, and a statement in relation to the workings of the society, and said that $125 had been collected, of which some had been expended in buying two or three hundred yards of cloth, which was being made up for the fugitives now in the city. He spoke of the great want of information as to the whereabouts of the fugitives, and the following moderate prices: Corns per cent, 50 cents; Bunions, from $1 to $3. The Doctor hurts the pocket but a trifle, and the toes not a particle. Give him a call.

U.S. Anti-Slavery Association.

A meeting of the Anti-Slavery Association is to extend relief to the contrabands who have fled from slavery, furnishing them with clothing and temporary employment, and also to teach them to read and write.

Mr. Hamlin, the President of the Association, calls the meeting to order, and a statement in relation to the workings of the society, and said that $125 had been collected, of which some had been expended in buying two or three hundred yards of cloth, which was being made up for the fugitives now in the city. He spoke of the great want of information as to the whereabouts of the fugitives, and the following moderate prices: Corns per cent, 50 cents; Bunions, from $1 to $3. The Doctor hurts the pocket but a trifle, and the toes not a particle. Give him a call.

U.S. Anti-Slavery Association.

A meeting of the Anti-Slavery Association is to extend relief to the contrabands who have fled from slavery, furnishing them with clothing and temporary employment, and also to teach them to read and write.

Mr. Hamlin, the President of the Association, calls the meeting to order, and a statement in relation to the workings of the society, and said that $125 had been collected, of which some had been expended in buying two or three hundred yards of cloth, which was being made up for the fugitives now in the city. He spoke of the great want of information as to the whereabouts of the fugitives, and the following moderate prices: Corns per cent, 50 cents; Bunions, from $1 to $3. The Doctor hurts the pocket but a trifle, and the toes not a particle. Give him a call.

U.S. Anti-Slavery Association.

A meeting of the Anti-Slavery Association is to extend relief to the contrabands who have fled from slavery, furnishing them with clothing and temporary employment, and also to teach them to read and write.

Mr. Hamlin, the President of the Association, calls the meeting to order, and a statement in relation to the workings of the society, and said that $125 had been collected, of which some had been expended in buying two or three hundred yards of cloth, which was being made up for the fugitives now in the city. He spoke of the great want of information as to the whereabouts of the fugitives, and the following moderate prices: Corns per cent, 50 cents; Bunions, from $1 to $3. The Doctor hurts the pocket but a trifle, and the toes not a particle. Give him a call.

U.S. Anti-Slavery Association.

A meeting of the Anti-Slavery Association is to extend relief to the contrabands who have fled from slavery, furnishing them with clothing and temporary employment, and also to teach them to read and write.

Mr. Hamlin, the President of the Association, calls the meeting to order, and a statement in relation to the workings of the society, and said that $125 had been collected, of which some had been expended in buying two or three hundred yards of cloth, which was being made up for the fugitives now in the city. He spoke of the great want of information as to the whereabouts of the fugitives, and the following moderate prices: Corns per cent, 50 cents; Bunions, from $1 to $3. The Doctor hurts the pocket but a trifle, and the toes not a particle. Give him a call.

U.S. Anti-Slavery Association.

A meeting of the Anti-Slavery Association is to extend relief to the contrabands who have fled from slavery, furnishing them with clothing and temporary employment, and also to teach them to read and write.

Mr. Hamlin, the President of the Association, calls the meeting to order, and a statement in relation to the workings of the society, and said that $125 had been collected, of which some had been expended in buying two or three hundred yards of cloth, which was being made up for the fugitives now in the city. He spoke of the great want of information as to the whereabouts of the fugitives, and the following moderate prices: Corns per cent, 50 cents; Bunions, from $1 to $3. The Doctor hurts the pocket but a trifle, and the toes not a particle. Give him a call.

U.S. Anti-Slavery Association.

A meeting of the Anti-Slavery Association is to extend relief to the contrabands who have fled from slavery, furnishing them with clothing and temporary employment, and also to teach them to read and write.

Mr. Hamlin, the President of the Association, calls the meeting to order, and a statement in relation to the workings of the society, and said that $125 had been collected, of which some had been expended in buying two or three hundred yards of cloth, which was being made up for the fugitives now in the city. He spoke of the great want of information as to the whereabouts of the fugitives, and the following moderate prices: Corns per cent, 50 cents; Bunions, from $1 to $3. The Doctor hurts the pocket but a trifle, and the toes not a particle. Give him a call.

U.S. Anti-Slavery Association.

A meeting of the Anti-Slavery Association is to extend relief to the contrabands who have fled from slavery, furnishing them with clothing and temporary employment, and also to teach them to read and write.

Mr. Hamlin, the President of the Association, calls the meeting to order, and a statement in relation to the workings of the society, and said that $125 had been collected, of which some had been expended in buying two or three hundred yards of cloth, which was being made up for the fugitives now in the city. He spoke of the great want of information as to the whereabouts of the fugitives, and the following moderate prices: Corns per cent, 50 cents; Bunions, from $1 to $3. The Doctor hurts the pocket but a trifle, and the toes not a particle. Give him a call.

U.S. Anti-Slavery Association.

A meeting of the Anti-Slavery Association is to extend relief to the contrabands who have fled from slavery, furnishing them with clothing and temporary employment, and also to teach them to read and write.

Mr. Hamlin, the President of the Association, calls the meeting to order, and a statement in relation to the workings of the society, and said that $125 had been collected, of which some had been expended in buying two or three hundred yards of cloth, which was being made up for the fugitives now in the city. He spoke of the great want of information as to the whereabouts of the fugitives, and the following moderate prices: Corns per cent, 50 cents; Bunions, from $1 to $3. The Doctor hurts the pocket but a trifle, and the toes not a particle. Give him a call.

U.S. Anti-Slavery Association.

A meeting of the Anti-Slavery Association is to extend relief to the contrabands who have fled from slavery, furnishing them with clothing and temporary employment, and also to teach them to read and write.

Mr. Hamlin, the President of the Association, calls the meeting to order, and a statement in relation to the workings of the society, and said that $125 had been collected, of which some had been expended in buying two or three hundred yards of cloth, which was being made up for the fugitives now in the city. He spoke of the great want of information as to the whereabouts of the fugitives, and the following moderate prices: Corns per cent, 50 cents; Bunions, from $1 to $3. The Doctor hurts the pocket but a trifle, and the toes not a particle. Give him a call.

U.S. Anti-Slavery Association.

A meeting of the Anti-Slavery Association is to extend relief to the contrabands who have fled from slavery, furnishing them with clothing and temporary employment, and also to teach them to read and write.

Mr. Hamlin, the President of the Association, calls the meeting to order, and a statement in relation to the workings of the society, and said that $125 had been collected, of which some had been expended in buying two or three hundred yards of cloth, which was being made up for the fugitives now in the city. He spoke of the great want of information as to the whereabouts of the fugitives, and the following moderate prices: Corns per cent, 50 cents; Bunions, from $1 to $3. The Doctor hurts the pocket but a trifle, and the toes not a particle. Give him a call.

U.S. Anti-Slavery Association.

A meeting of the Anti-Slavery Association is to extend relief to the contrabands who have fled from slavery, furnishing them with clothing and temporary employment, and also to teach them to read and write.

Mr. Hamlin, the President of the Association, calls the meeting to order, and a statement in relation to the workings of the society, and said that $125 had been collected, of which some had been expended in buying two or three hundred yards of cloth, which was being made up for the fugitives now in the city. He spoke of the great want of information as to the whereabouts of the fugitives, and the following moderate prices: Corns per cent, 50 cents; Bunions, from $1 to $3. The Doctor hurts the pocket but a trifle, and the toes not a particle. Give him a call.

U.S. Anti-Slavery Association.

A meeting of the Anti-Slavery Association is to extend relief to the contrabands who have fled from slavery, furnishing them with clothing and temporary employment, and also to teach them to read and write.

Mr. Hamlin, the President of the Association, calls the meeting to order, and a statement in relation to the workings of the society, and said that $125 had been collected, of which some had been expended in buying two or three hundred yards of cloth, which was being made up for the fugitives now in the city. He spoke of the great want of information as to the whereabouts of the fugitives, and the following moderate prices: Corns per cent, 50 cents; Bunions, from $1 to $3. The Doctor hurts the pocket but a trifle, and the toes not a particle. Give him a call.

U.S. Anti-Slavery Association.

A meeting of the Anti-Slavery Association is to extend relief to the contrabands who have fled from slavery, furnishing them with clothing and temporary employment, and also to teach them to read and write.

Mr. Hamlin, the President of the Association, calls the meeting to order, and a statement in relation to the workings of the society, and said that $125 had been collected, of which some had been expended in buying two or three hundred yards of cloth, which was being made up for the fugitives now in the city. He spoke of the great want of information as to the whereabouts of the fugitives, and the following moderate prices: Corns per cent, 50 cents; Bunions, from $1 to $3. The Doctor hurts the pocket but a trifle, and the toes not a particle. Give him a call.

U.S. Anti-Slavery Association.

A meeting of the Anti-Slavery Association is to extend relief to the contrabands who have fled from slavery, furnishing them with clothing and temporary employment, and also to teach them to read and write.

Mr. Hamlin, the President of the Association, calls the meeting to order, and a statement in relation to the workings of the society, and said that $125 had been collected, of which some had been expended in buying two or three hundred yards of cloth, which was being made up for the fugitives now in the city. He spoke of the great want of information as to the whereabouts of the fugitives, and the following moderate prices: Corns per cent, 50 cents; Bunions, from $1 to $3. The Doctor hurts the pocket but a trifle, and the toes not a particle. Give him a call.

U.S. Anti-Slavery Association.

A meeting of the Anti-Slavery Association is to extend relief to the contrabands who have fled from slavery, furnishing them with clothing and temporary employment, and also to teach them to read and write.

Mr. Hamlin, the President of the Association, calls the meeting to order, and a statement in relation to the workings of the society, and said that $125 had been collected, of which some had been expended in buying two or three hundred yards of cloth, which was being made up for the fugitives now in the city. He spoke of the great want of information as to the whereabouts of the fugitives, and the following moderate prices: Corns per cent, 50 cents; Bunions, from $1 to $3. The Doctor hurts the pocket but a trifle, and the toes not a particle. Give him a call.

U.S. Anti-Slavery Association.</